Your child will begin reading the chapter book entitled Junie B. Jones Boo....and I Mean It this week in class. It will take us three weeks to get through this selection. We will break the chapter book into weekly reading assignments. Please pay close attention to the homework chart below to see what chapters your son/daughter should read/review at home this week. When we are finished reading the entire chapter book, your child will take an AR test over it. October Refrigerator Reading is due on Tuesday, October 31st. Remember to visit the Renaissance Learning Home Connect (a paper was sent home to help) to view your child's progress on AR quizzes.
