Your child will continue to read the chapter book entitled Junie B. Jones Boo....and I Mean It this week and next week in class. At the conclusion of next week, he/she will complete an AR test over the selection. Refer to the assignments below to know which chapters to read this week at home. Your child will also read The Vampire Dentist in class this week! This is a level L story. It might be below your child's reading level, but is still a second grade appropriate, and enjoyable Halloween story to read. Your child will take a written assessment over this selection on Friday. We will go over the story's plot often in class. You may also review the story at home! October Refrigerator Reading is due on Tuesday, October 31st.
